

Active Responses

Please choose one or more of the following Active Responses:

1. Sponsor a discussion group on campus around issues of justice or police brutality
2. Read a chapter from the book The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander and host a discussion.
3. Invite a special guest (police officer, prison warden, campus security) to speak at a large group forum to engage with issues of police brutality.
4. Partner with a Christian campus group of a different majority ethnicity and do one of the above.
5. Sponsor a healing prayer night for students struggling with trauma, anxiety, or stress from black deaths at the hands of others.
6. Partner with the Black Student Association and sponsor a "What Can We Do Forum" to gather practical ideas for action steps.
7. As a group, decide to mentor youth who have lost family members to violence (check with local middle school or high school counselors).
8. Host a Candlelight vigil for those lost to police brutality.
9. Host a movie night. Watch and discuss The Birth of a Nation.
10. Watch and discuss the documentary The 13th on Netflix.

*List was developed by Jason "Smiley" Abrams, Kimberly Blackford, and other BCM staff